

Global Entry (Trusted Traveler Program)

The Global Entry program allows biometrically registered and pre-approved low-risk travelers belonging to certain nationalities to undergo simplified and accelerated identity control at border crossings at selected U.S. airports.

PURPOSE

- Automated biometric border-control process
- Acceleration of the entry procedure through undergoing passport control at designated Global Entry kiosks independently:
  - ▶ Present machine-readable passport or U.S. permanent resident card (GreenCard)
  - ▶ Place fingerprints on the scanner for fingerprint verifications
  - ▶ Create a digital photo
  - ▶ Complete a customs declaration
  - ▶ Transaction receipt with further instructions
- Suitable for persons who travel frequently to the U.S.

PARTICULARITIES

- Biometrically registered and pre-screened U.S. immigrants (lawful permanent residents) and nationals (low-risk travelers) from the following countries: Argentina, Canada, Colombia, Germany, Great Britain, India, Mexico, Panama, Switzerland, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan, the United States
- Available at selected airports
- Biometric passport (e-passport) with an electronic chip is required
- Certain visa categories are excluded from Global Entry

APPLICATION PROCESS

- Create an account ("Login.gov") on the official CBP Trusted Traveler Programs website
- Fill out online application form and pay the $100 Global Entry application fee
- Enroll in national inspection program to get pre-approved
- Personal interview appointment at one of the Global Entry Enrollment Center (GEEC) in the U.S.
